Prattonia

In those first few months, the longstanding hustle and bustle of campus was silenced, and engulfed every nook and cranny it could find with an eerie tranquility.

Dorms became ghostowns, as
the student body
scattered to all four corners of the Earth.
Left high and dry, Pratt students opened their arms and their homes
to one another.

Manifest your 2022

and beyond.

I am healthy.

I am wealthy.

I am rich.

I am that bitch.

I am gonna go get that bag.

and I am not gonna take your shit.

I am protected.

Well respected.

I'm a queen.

I'm a dream.

I do what I wanna do.

and I'm who I wanna be.

Jessica manifests not crying after every minor and major inconvenience and vows to actually sleep in her bed, instead of randomly slumping over for a nap on the G train out of exhaustion. She is on the verge as she writes this, but will push through nonetheless.

Makara manifests not getting summer, Barbie, brunch, and M&M finding a job after graduation. She is venerated and ready to be the hot-girl version of herself as soon as school ends.

Varun manifests never having to see the professors he hates ever again, as well as seeing professors he did like and learn from, out in the professional world, as peers.

Hey Besties!!

Wow we have had a hard road to graduation. Our last year was definitely something none of us imagined. We survived so much bullshit that no one ever deserves to go through. The Class of 2021 deserved more, a better graduation, more time together, more memories, more nights we can't remember, and an actual goodbye from Pratt Institute. This book is our love letter to you. We love y'all so much! You guys are what made our time at school special. Nothing could take away the amazing ideas, the incredible work, and the love that we shared. Thank you for sticking it out despite all the hard times. We made it through and now the only way from here is up.

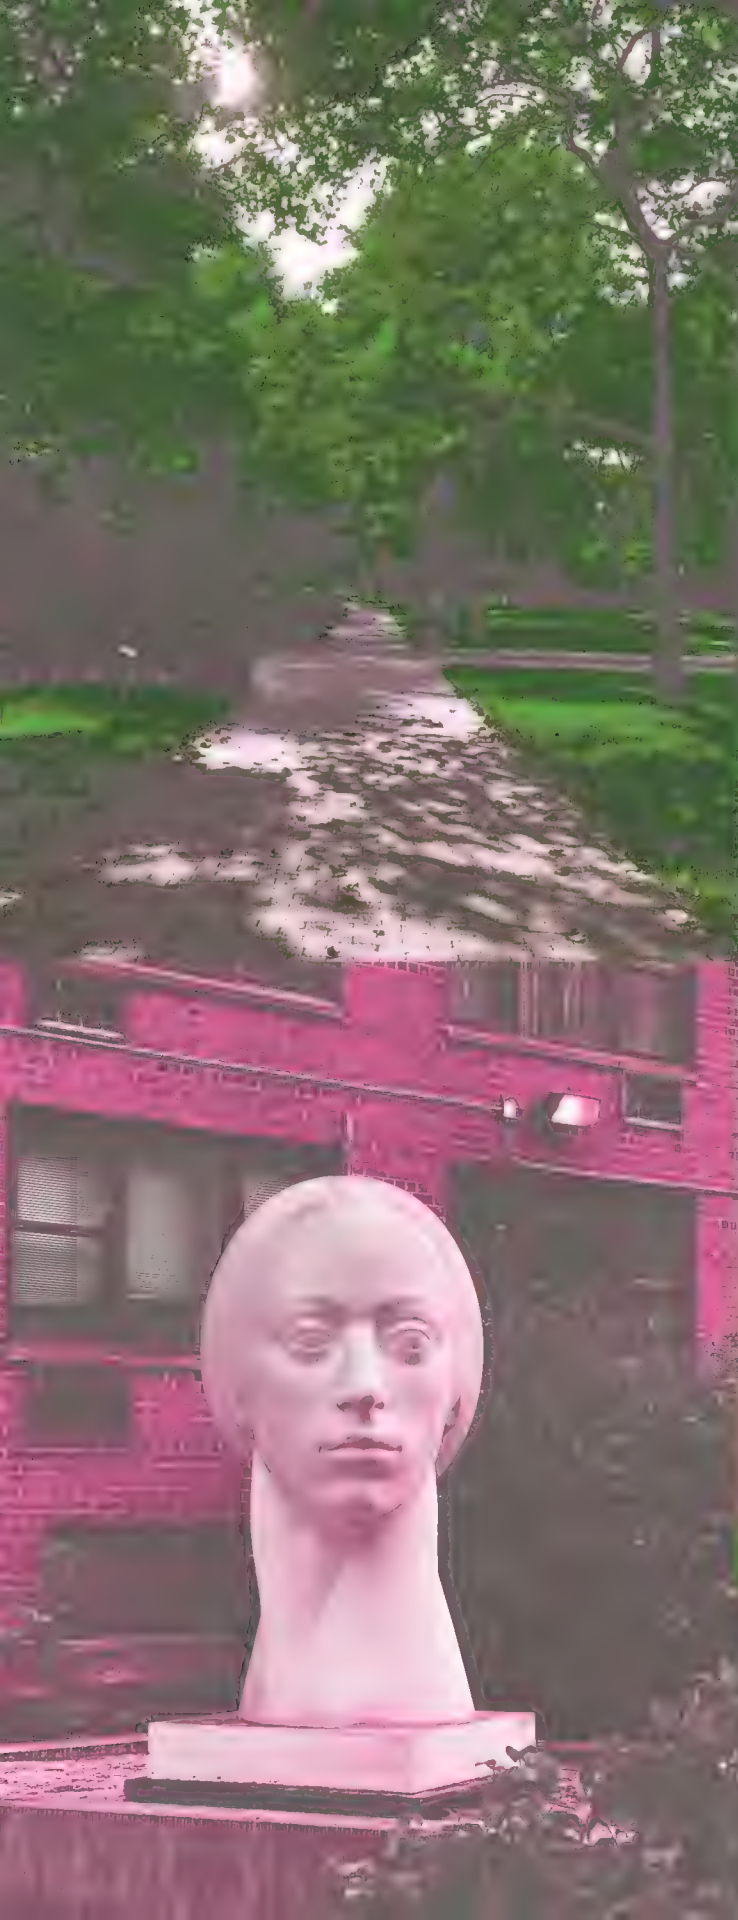

Congratulations Class of 2021. We love you. We are so incredibly proud of you. There are only more amazing things for us to do!

Love,

The Prattonia Team

Here's what we know:

Kim and Kanye have filed for divorce. We knew they have been on the rocks for awhile now. Sadly we know that mental health can really put on toll on individuals and a family.

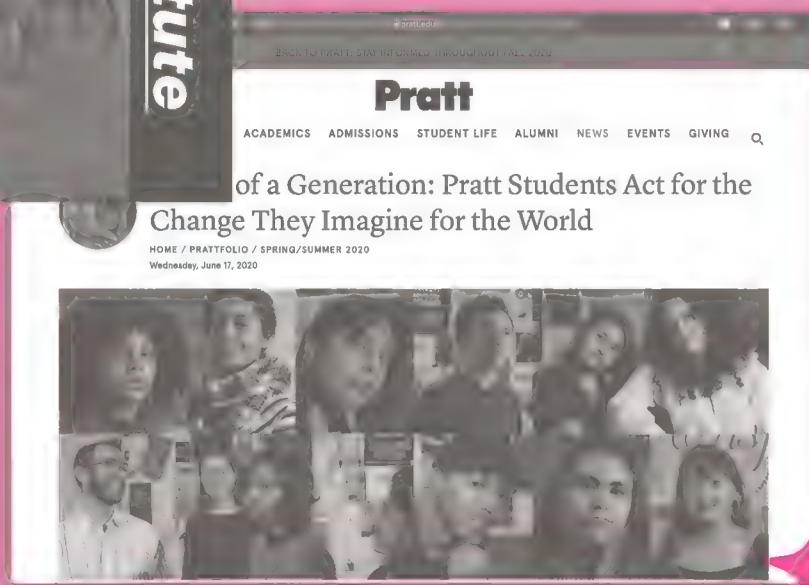

Remember those tweets? "...kris long live..." the movie get out is about me..." North's mom..." That was all just this year. In the end it wasn't Kanye that got banned from Twitter.

Kanye was running for President. He was getting up there with his menatally ill self (just like you and me.) Ulitamately we didnt get Kanye as our Pres, but we did get a new one.

Oh yeah, we're also in a Pandemic. Palindromia: Conivision, Pizza Hut, A-lace, Bell, Pizzeria, Hawden, Panettiere, Pythagorean Theorem, Panomaria, Pepsi, Poe, Paralelogram, Paradoxes, Darned, Robert Pattinson, Pangea, Parent, Panama, Portland, Oregon, Pistachio, Popcorn, Parabolic, Prilly, Decker, Discus, Astronaut, Patsy Helpert, Reptile, Bismal, Popperman, President of Pratt Institute.

Heads up, Brooklyn! Just heard from a friend closer to the area that there's at least 12 NYPD squad cars parked on the Pratt Campus, plus the lot seems full of cop's personal cars. Also 3 SUV squad cars full of cops are blocking Classon Ave and Willoughby Ave. Be safe.

Black Lives Matter at Pratt. Black Lives Matter Everywhere.

Dear Pratt Administration,
In response to the murder of George Floyd and subsequent protests, numerous students have reached out directly to Student Government via social media, email and other methods in order to voice their concerns about Pratt's response. Together we have met and discussed what we think Pratt must do to address its own role in combating structural racism and violence.

President Bronet's letter to students states, "As your president, I renew my commitment, and the Institute's commitment, to work to eradicate racism and injustice through our curriculum, our outreach, and our mission." This statement is meaningless without action. Your commitments are meaningless without dedicated follow through. Change doesn't just have to happen on the local, state, or national level; it has to happen within the confines of our own institution of learning. We call on Pratt to do the following: Pratt must immediately break all monetary and symbolic ties with the NYPD and private security companies.* Police and their proxies (private security companies) have no place on our campus. Instead, Pratt must commit resources to support community-led alternatives to policing.

Pratt must decolonize its educational structure and actively integrate Black inclusion in both the curriculum and classroom. In every class in every department, students should learn about Black artists, Black designers, Black architects, and other Black folks who have contributed to their field of study. The Eurocentric, White within the Board of Trustees. They must also create an advisory board that informs them of DEI issues and how their decisions affect Black students, faculty, staff, and the surrounding community.

*Pratt's initial response to remove the police vehicles from the NYPD 88th precinct from campus is a step towards solidarity with Black students and all marginalized communities. However, recent photos show that Pratt did not keep to its word; NYPD vehicles have since been seen at the campus entrance on Emerson and Willoughby.

Our demands are clear: Pratt needs to break all monetary and symbolic ties to the NYPD and explicitly bar them from our campus. In addition to a statement from Pratt, educational resources, donation links, and protest information should have been included. This can be easily done by using Pratt's social media infrastructure as a place to share these resources. We also implore Pratt to make monetary contributions to bail funds, abolitionist organizations, and Black businesses.

The Student Government Association and the rest of the student body demand Pratt Institute to fully commit to making the vital changes we have outlined here. If Pratt is truly a champion of diversity, equity, and inclusion, the Institution needs to implement these changes.

Sincerely

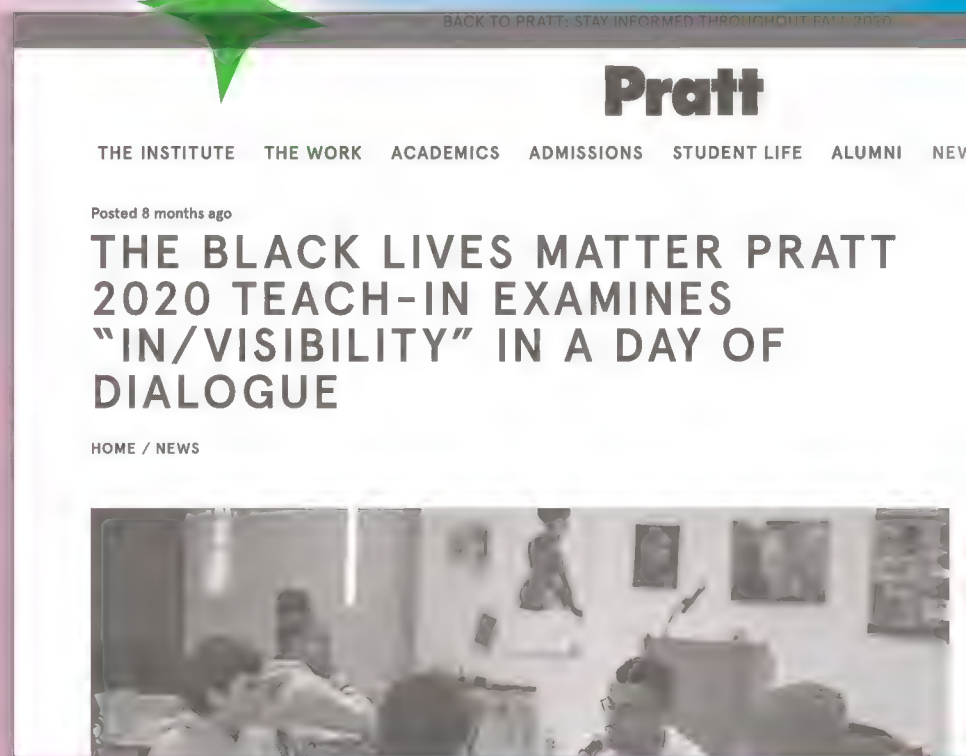

The Pratt Student Body

experience must be decentered across departments and schools. Beyond this, we call on Pratt to immediately begin work on the creation of a Black Studies program, as a part of Pratt's core curriculum. Pratt must renew its commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion as a whole by hiring more non-white, especially Black, faculty to all of Pratt's departments. In addition, diversity training must become mandatory for all members of the Pratt community.

Students at Pratt demand greater transparency behind the implementation of institutional policies. The progress of the Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Strategic Plan must be made publicly available for all members of Pratt's community.

Pratt must commit to financially supporting the Black community inside and outside of its gates by increasing and deepening scholarships for Black students, expanding its HEOP program, and finding ways to reinvest in the neighborhood it has gentrified.

Pratt must diversify who holds leadership positions especially

STORYTIME POST
STUDENTS' EXPERIENCES AT PRATT

We will be posting stories from students and alumni to share their experiences while attending Pratt to promote change in the structure of how the Institute is run. We are eager to share stories to spark a movement in hopes to create a better environment for students in the future.

- DM YOUR STORY to @prattfic
- SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCES
- SHARE YOUR PAIN

CHANGE STARTS WITH YOU!

"I AM NOT PULLING TEETH TO GET A CRITIQUE"

- TAMIA BAILEY, PRESIDENT

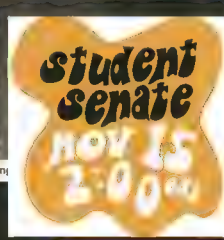

As Pratt's Student Government, we understand that our relationship and position as liaisons between the student body and administration are often faced with skepticism and under acknowledgment. A tension brought to the forefront as we witnessed a schism in the aftermath of the COVID- 19 evacuation, cops on campus during national protests for Black Lives, and a full year of online school. But amidst this, we were/are committed week in and week out to using our power and privilege to materially improve campus and mentally turn the cultural climate of Pratt - all while recognizing that you can't please everyone. In a year like no other, all we hope for is that our efforts build up to a future where students are met with access, inclusion, awareness, and space to focus on being their best selves.

-The Student Government of 2020 - 2021

SGA Goals 2020-2021

- Mental Health Initiative
- Improving the Academic Experience (Online/Hybrid)
- Club and Organization Support
- Digital Accessibility
- Developing a Black Studies Minor due to a Relationship with Pratt Archives

Pratt Student Government '20-'21

Hi! We're your student government for the 2020-2021 school year. We serve as the liaison between the students and the administration. We are here to address any concerns that you might have. Our goal is to build connection with the Pratt community through this digital era. We have virtual office hours via a zoom link on instagram or email at sga@pratt.edu

Just want to gauge if anyone else is lowkey fed up with SGA? We elect y'all to make GOOD decisions and what we get is museum memberships cancelled for unnecessary student employment funds & funding for VIRTUAL clubs maybe Pratt is scapegoating SGA for making these decisions but they also just suck ass at answer emails lol

prattgossip - Follow

achahelds and i get that we're all upset about the museums but COME ON, let me know how much all the students have been using that recently.....i'm waiting.....oh right, not many bc most of us aren't in NY and also it's not really safe to be going out and about so many of us aren't having museum days anymore

achahelds there are plenty of decisions that have been made that we can get angry about, but

Liked by achahelds and 100 others

Swing State
Win-Lose Results

As a community, visibility for Black folks is a double-edged sword. We can see ourselves, find ourselves, and unify under an umbrella of collective experiences. And yet, it can leave us vulnerable to state, systematic and institutional violence. Over the past year, we have witnessed the duality of visibility through the long-overdue light shone on Black community organizing and labor and the co-option of Black cultural creation, linguistics, and imagery - a performance of 'paying attention to'.

In the midst of it all, Black folks continue to carve out spaces for joy and vitality. I hope more than anything that within Pratt Institute, the BSU for the past two years was that space of being and feeling seen, of release and celebration. May we continue to build the futures we want for ourselves.

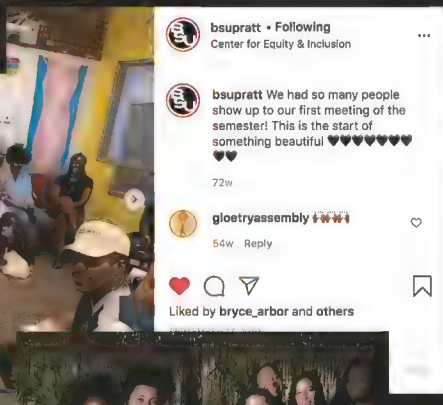

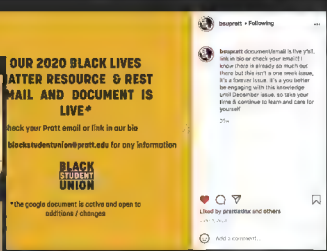

Sarah Kanu
BSU President 2019 - 2021

Brown skin,
Kinky hair,
Deep dip in that upper lip.
Honey, you are exactly what they aim to be.

Don't let the cultural appropriations strip you of your identity,
that melanin in your skin comes naturally.
I see you and all your natural beauty;
no amount of makeup can cover
up your imperfections.
Those imperfections are what make you unique.
You are a queen.

Sit upon your throne amongst your sisters lively and free!
Don't let society tell you who to be.
Don't let opinions kill your self-esteem.
You are a queen.
We are Black naturally.
